

Resident and Non-Resident Student Profile by College - 10 Year Trend

Resident and Non-Resident Student Profile by College - Fall 2011

College	Resident Students	Non-Resident Students	Total	Percent Non-Resident
Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources	1,691	247	1,938	12.75%
Architecture	325	73	398	18.34%
Arts and Sciences	3,824	915	4,739	19.31%
Business Administration	2,219	817	3,036	26.91%
Education and Human Sciences	2,782	418	3,200	13.06%
Engineering	2,262	430	2,692	15.97%
Hixson-Lied Fine and Performing Arts	520	137	657	20.85%
General Studies	1,341	296	1,637	18.08%
Journalism and Mass Communications	690	171	861	19.86%
Other (includes Visiting and Intercampus)	170	17	187	9.09%
Undergraduate Total	15,824	3,521	19,345	18.20%
Graduate Studies	2,298	2,381	4,679	50.89%
Graduate Total	2,298	2,381	4,679	50.89%
Law	317	82	399	20.55%
Professional Agriculture and Natural Resources	55	4	59	6.78%
Professional Architecture	69	17	86	19.77%
Professional Education and Human Sciences	9	16	25	64.00%
Professional¹ Total	450	119	569	20.91%
Total	18,572	6,021	24,593	24.48%

¹ Professional includes Law, EHS Audiology, ANR Veterinary Medicine, ANR Plant Health, and Professional Architecture students.

Residency is based on regulations developed for tuition purposes. Omaha students paying Metropolitan Advantage Program (MAP) tuition have been included in the non-resident category. MAP students are from Iowa counties contiguous to Omaha.

Last Updated: September 12, 2011