The University of Nebraska–Lincoln is a Big Ten, land-grant university ranked in the top tier of national research universities.

We believe in the power of every person. We don’t rest on our strengths — we stretch them. Sweat them. Combine them. Growing flexible, nimble and strong minds. That’s how we do big things.

We are making big things happen at Nebraska:

- 23% increase in research expenditures over past 10 years
- Named one of America’s Best Large Employers in 2018 by Forbes

In Just the Facts, you will find a number of informative metrics on the university. I also want to devote some space here to our dynamic community of Lincoln, which has earned rankings that are sparking interest outside the state.

Our Mission and Vision  Our mission is to grow relationships and resources that enable the University of Nebraska (NU) to change lives and save lives. Our vision is to be recognized as the trusted partner of those wishing to support NU.

N Fund  UNL students enjoy an enriched educational experience thanks in large part to the generous contributions of private donors. The N Fund at the University of Nebraska Foundation allows alumni and friends to direct their gifts through a unified family of funds supporting Nebraska’s colleges as well as broader areas of need. Scholarships benefit students whose greatest obstacle is financial need; contributions to faculty development help recruit and retain the nation’s most talented instructors; gifts to our libraries provide support for one of the most critical resources on campus. Visit nufoundation.org/nfund for more information.

Did You Know?  The foundation was established on June 3, 1936, as a private, nonprofit organization to help individuals and organizations provide philanthropic support to their university. Nearly 100 percent of donations are designated for specific purposes and causes on campus. This includes endowed gifts and the more than 10,400 funds we manage. More than 44,000 people and organizations committed to support the university system last year.
